After a recent spike in COVID-19 cases, Douglas County’s local health officer recently issued two orders, one that requires masks in indoor public spaces or in situations where keeping 6 feet of social distance cannot be maintained and another that closed bars and nightclubs beginning July 3.

“It is our hope that taking these measures now will allow us to slow the spread and put us into a stronger position as we approach the school season,” said Douglas County Health Officer Dr. Thomas Marcellino.
